

A Memorial Service

Held By the Red Jacket Lodge of United Workmen.

Presented With a Banner.

The Finnish Glee Club and Finnish League Fraternize—The Epworth League Concert.

Following the usual custom of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the local lodge held memorial services in their hall in the Union building last evening. Mr. J. D. Cuddihy acted as chairman of the meeting and announced the different numbers of the program. The program opened with a vocal duet by Krupp Brothers, followed by a soprano and alto duet by the Muses James. Mr. Harry King then rendered an euphonium solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Edith Schneiderhahn, after which the Hall Brothers sang a duet. Prof. T. Wills, Jr., then favored the audience with a reading in the Cornish dialect and he was obliged to respond to a hearty encore.

Number six on the program was a violin duet by Prof. Arndt and Master Albert Voelker, which greatly pleased the audience. This was followed by an address by Dr. William Hall. Dr. Hall spoke at some length and gave many interesting points concerning the society and its workings and benefit and his address was very instructive.

Miss Mundy then rendered an alto solo in excellent style and was followed by Mr. M. J. Cunniff, who, in a few well chosen words, eulogized the departed members of the local society, viz: Joseph Roberts, Henry Boone and Patrick Kelly and called to memory some of the characteristics of those departed brothers.

Following this talk, Miss May Mundy and Frank Soddy gave a selection and the Melody quartette rendered the last number of the program. The quartette was obliged to respond to a hearty encore. The services were a success in every respect and the entertainment was thoroughly interesting from start to finish.

Presented With a Banner.

The Finnish Glee club last evening presented with a beautiful banner by the members of the Finnish Ladies' league at their regular meeting. The banner is made of blue silk, with the words "Suomen Savel, 1893," inscribed in gold letters, below which is a golden harp. The words "Finnish Glee Club, Calumet, Michigan," is also inscribed in gold below the harp. The banner is now on exhibition at the Eagle drug store. On the part of the ladies' league Mrs. Charles Ala and Miss Linda Malberg, in a few well-chosen words, presented the banner to the club.

Mr. Werner Nikander responded to the ladies and thanked the members of the ladies' organization for their generous gift. After the presentation of the banner an interesting musical program, consisting for the most part of selections by the glee club, was rendered.

Virginia N. Eastman.

Miss V. Nina Eastman, of Detroit, will, with the assistance of some of the best local talent, give an entertainment at the Calumet M. E. church, instead of the Opera House as previously announced, Tuesday, January 28, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Calumet M. E. church. Miss Eastman has given a number of entertainments through the Upper Peninsula and Lower Michigan and also through Canada, and in almost every instance effort has been made to secure her for a second entertainment. At Grimsby Park, the noted Canadian summer resort, she has been one of the attractions for four seasons. In musical circles Miss Eastman is acknowledged to be one of the foremost vocalists of Michigan. Admission, 35 cents.

Laurium.

The funeral of the 4-year-old son of John Sostarich, who died from the effects of a scalding he received some time ago, was held from St. Joseph's church this morning and the body interred in the Hecla cemetery.

Mr. Math Blau is receiving congratulations for his prowess as a hunter. It will be remembered he brought five deer from Swanzy some time ago, and last week he shot six fine foxes near the Trap Rock river. Math is as sly as a fox.

Another athletic club will be organized in the near future and will be known as the "L. A. C." They will begin indoor training and expect to put up some records the coming summer.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal panacea for coughs, colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations." Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this ideal cough remedy now. Trial bottles free at D. T. Macdonalds drug store.

Four men now occupy cots at the Tamarack hospital, two of whom have been there for many months. One of these is a Finn from Portage Entry, and the other is an Austrian who was injured in the Tamarack mine. Both are suffering from bad compound fractures of the leg. William Besley, the man who was injured at the new shaft, is doing nicely and is now out of danger, and the other is Joseph Melhitch, an Austrian trammer, who was injured at the Tamarack Junior last Monday. He is much better now, and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

The reverse gear for the new hoisting engine at No. 5 shaft, Tamarack, has been received and the engine will be started immediately, and hoisting operations will then be run on a more extensive scale and greater progress made. The shaft is now down about 165 feet. The new machinery has an automatic contrivance for dumping the bucket at the top of the shaft, which is something new in its line and a great improvement on the old way of working.

The Austrian singing society, assisted by the Austrian band, will give a grand concert and ball at the Italian Hall on the evening of Saturday, February 8. A program consisting of selections by the society, quartette, duets, and solos by different members of the society will be rendered, and in addition to this a drama will be presented. After the concert dancing will be indulged in.

The little son of Mr. Martin Schneiderhahn, who was bitten by a dog the other day, is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The boy received two bad wounds—one under the eye and the other over it—the lower wound extending back under the eye and it is wonderful more serious consequences did not result. Officer McGinn has had the dog shot.

At the last regular meeting of Stella Lodge, No. 206, D. of R., the following officers were installed: N. G.—Martha D. Messner. V. G.—Kate McDonald. R. S.—Lily M. Curt. F. S.—Hannah Neaton. Treasurer—Rebecca Jacka.

A LAMENT.

Where soft fleecy clouds sweet the heavens
Over the sky a dark veil is drawn
And the distant moan of the north wind
Is the knell of joys that are gone.

The leaves and the flowers have perished,
The note of the wild bird is still;
Like the wall of imprisoned spirits
Sounds the plaintive song of the rill.

And winter, the conqueror, has journeyed
O'er meadow and fallow and waste
In the dull red glow of the sunset
The seal of his triumph is placed.

But what if the gladness has vanished
The spring time will come on apace,
And then at her feet the proud victor,
A victim will murmur for grace.

R. P. M.

Hat Versus Toque.

"They say" that a terrific millinery war is raging in London just now. It is the battle of hat versus toque, and the outcome is as yet uncertain. The styles are equally charming, and feminine fancy sides first with one and then with the other. A large pearl gray felt hat is handsomely trimmed with black and white striped ribbon, which appears in huge plaits about the crown. Black wings and white osprey provide the rest of the trimming, while the brim is faced with black velvet. The quiet taste of this hat is a welcome change from the gaudy headgear so much in evidence just now. A dainty toque is of cerise mottled velvet. It has a brim of soft black chenille, square in shape and turned up at the corners. A single big black plume and a black osprey complete this trimming, while against the hair in the back rests a knot of black satin ribbon.—New York Sun.

Her Turkish Decoration.

At some of the elaborate club functions at which Mrs. Charles Henrotin has been the guest of honor she has worn a beautiful badge, evidently some foreign insignia, on the corsage of her always handsome toilet. This is the decoration of the "Royal Order of the Chefakat," and represents the honor conferred by his majesty Abdul Hamid II, sultan of Turkey while Mrs. Henrotin was acting president of the woman's branch of the World's Congress auxiliary. The membership is known as the Order of the Good, and the decoration is a gold star and crescent of the Ottoman empire, suspended from a large bow of the Turkish colors of the order. The background is a beautiful design of gold, bearing the star, which is ornamented with wine colored enamel, diamonds, rubies and emeralds.

ADAM SCHAAF!

PIANOS.

MR. ADAM SCHAAF has, after long and careful study and experiments, succeeded in producing Upright Piano Fortes which are the most perfect instruments of their class ever constructed. The volume of tone is fully equal to any of the best Square Grand Pianos, while the quality is of the most exquisite character—pure, sympathetic, and in the highest degree pliable. The durability of these new Upright Pianos, and their capacity of standing in tune is unparalleled in the history of piano making, and even greater than that of the best Grand and Square Pianos.

Upright Grand, style 3, and Cabinet Grand, style 5, in their interior construction, power, volume and exquisite singing, sympathetic quality of tone, are substantially Parlor Grands in upright form. In a word, the Adam SchAAF Piano is made to stand, not merely as an ornamental piece of furniture, but as a musical instrument—not for a day, but for a lifetime.

Too much cannot be said in favor of these Upright Pianos; in fact, they must be seen and heard to be appreciated. An immense demand has already sprung up for these instruments, which are rapidly becoming
